Mihin Lanka, Sri Lanka's newest airline, has set its focus on the SAARC Region as a key sector for future growth and expansion. Mihin Lanka's wide regional network and affordable yet dependable services will enable more people to connect with the various economic and cultural centers within the region.

Historically, the South Asian Region has had one of the most advanced civilizations and economies in the world and much of that derived from cultural, technological and trade exchanges within the region. Once more the peoples of the nine countries of the SAARC countries are gearing up to reclaim their premier position at a global level; And once more there is a renewed need to explore old ties and leverage our collective strengths and resources. In Sri Lanka, the onset of peace after a three decade long civil war, has energized businesses and individuals both within the country and within the SAARC region, to seek new economic opportunities as well as travelling for pleasure and spiritual fulfillment. The need to expand ones boundaries is innate to people in all walks of life and Mihin Lanka has made fulfilling that aspiration its mandate. Mihin Lanka at present flies from Sri Lanka to India and two Middle Eastern destinations but will expand to Bangladesh, the Maldives and Nepal in the near future.

Mihin Lanka has one the lowest pricing structures which provides for an affordable travel experience to the majority of the people in the region. Early booking discounts and exciting promotional offers make its tariff structure even more attractive.

Mihin Lanka has made one its missions to facilitate the peoples of the region to visit the extraordinarily rich religious and cultural heritage of South Asia. For pilgrims and cultural tourists, Mihin Lanka connects people to the important historic religious centers of the region such as Buddhagaya, Varanasi and Velankanni. Thoughtfully designed all inclusive packages to these destinations provide travelers both young and old with an economical, hassle free and richly rewarding travel experience to these ancient seats of religion and learning.

Most of the countries of South Asia owe a great debt to the multitude of immigrant workers who remit much needed foreign exchange every year to the local economies. Mihin Lanka's network now includes the important job markets of Dubai and Kuwait and plans to expand to more countries in the region.

There are a host of other benefits on offer for Mihin Lanka travelers. A very generous baggage allowance of upto 30kg is available on many flights. Moreover additional baggage allowances are priced very economically. On board, a professionally trained crew will attend to your every need and an extensive on-board duty free shop is available for your convenience. Flight information and reservations are available at www.mihinlanka.com and they now have a 24 hour call centre to answer your queries. Mihin Lanka has appointed General Sales Agents in India, Dubai, Maldives, Qatar and Kuwait to serve its customers.

All of this makes Mihin Lanka the smartest choice for the SAARC regions travelers in the years ahead.
